FISCAL NOTE

HB 724 – SB 655

March 17, 2011

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI), through consultation with the Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) and incorporation of the AMBER alert infrastructure, to establish the Blue Alert System in Tennessee for rapid statewide dissemination of information to aid in apprehending violent criminals who kill or seriously injure law enforcement officers and in locating missing law enforcement officers.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

On March 12, 2011, a fiscal not was issued estimating a fiscal impact as follows: Increase State Expenditures - $4,900/One-Time, Increase State Expenditures $79,100/Recurring. Due to new information received from TBI on March 17, 2011, the fiscal impact is:

(CORRECTED)

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- According to TBI, any cost to establish the Blue Alert System can be accommodated within existing resources.
- According to TDOT, there will be no impact upon the Department for consultation with the TBI regarding the Blue Alert System.
- This bill places no specific requirements on local law enforcement agencies; therefore, any increase to local government expenditures is considered not significant.
